

Portrait of a Graduate Characteristics

INQUIRERS

We nurture our curiosity, developing skills for inquiry and research. We know how to learn independently and with others. We learn with enthusiasm and sustain our love of learning throughout life.

KNOWLEDGEABLE

We develop and use conceptual understanding, exploring knowledge across a range of disciplines. We engage with issues and ideas that have local and global significance.

THINKERS

We use critical and creative thinking skills to analyze and take responsible action on complex problems. We exercise initiative in making reasoned, ethical decisions.

COMMUNICATORS

We express ourselves confidently and creatively in more than one language and in many ways. We collaborate effectively, listening carefully to the perspectives of other individuals and groups.

PRINCIPLED

We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

OPEN-MINDED

We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others. We seek and evaluate a range of points of view and we are willing to grow from the experience.

CARING

We show empathy, compassion and respect. We have a commitment to service and we act to make a positive difference in the lives of others and in the world around us.

RISK-TAKERS

We approach uncertainty with forethought and determination; we work independently and cooperatively to explore new ideas and innovative strategies. We are resourceful and resilient in the face of challenges and change.

BALANCED

We understand the importance of balancing different aspects of our lives—intellectual, physical, and emotional—to achieve well-being for ourselves and others. We recognize our interdependence with other people and with the world in which we live.

REFLECTIVE

We thoughtfully consider the world and our own ideas and experience. We work to understand our strengths and weaknesses in order to support our learning and personal development.

VISION

To create a world-class education today to shape tomorrow's leaders

MISSION

To provide an education that challenges all students to achieve their maximum potential in academics, arts, and athletics and prepares them to succeed in a global society

OXFORD COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

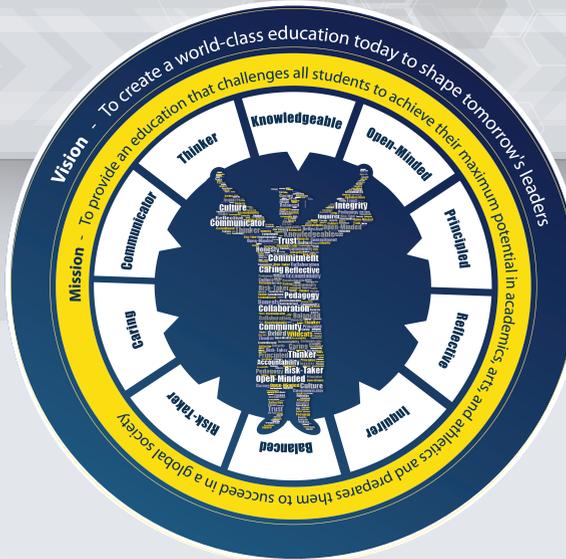

Strategic Process

Oxford Community Schools' strategic process maximizes our efforts to create a world-class education by aligning our district focus. OCS' strategic process is grounded in our strong belief in our mission, vision, and values. Using this belief system, we have created our Portrait of a Graduate and our Strategic Plan. The Portrait of a Graduate articulates our shared vision for all Oxford students as a result of their educational experiences in our schools. The Strategic Plan provides the roadmap for the actions of board members, administrators, and staff as we fulfill our commitment to our Portrait of a Graduate.

STRATEGIC PLAN

Goal 1: Ensure student acquisition of skills, knowledge, and experiences necessary to thrive in a global society.

Strategic Initiative 1.1 Develop, implement, and improve the written guaranteed and viable curriculum.

Systematically develop, align, and adopt curricula and instructional materials aligning all of the elements within each discipline to International Baccalaureate, Portrait of a Graduate, iNACOL (virtual), and state/national standards to prepare students for college and career success.

Strategic Initiative 1.2 Develop, implement, and improve the taught guaranteed and viable curriculum.

Develop and implement a practical and rigorous instructional framework model driven by best practices. Research, identify, and adopt Portrait of a Graduate. Professional development and evaluation activities, including classroom observations, will be aligned to the relevant instructional framework (International Baccalaureate, iNACOL, Marzano) to ensure consistency across the district. Improve student engagement through embedding the Approaches to Learning skills and other teaching and learning practices.

Strategic Initiative 1.4 Improve academic supports to meet the needs of all students.

Develop an effective Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) at the elementary and secondary level. Implement a data driven approach to addressing student academic deficiencies in the general education classroom. Monitor all students for signs of at-risk indicators in both academics and behavior. Develop academic programming that challenges all students. Provide all students with differentiated instruction and academic supports through research-based practices that are both responsive to individual needs and aligned with the district's instructional framework for all students.
